

Trust Lead Practitioner – Modern Foreign Languages (Secondary)

Attractive salary negotiable dependant on career stage (Leadership Spine)

September 2021

The Role:

We are seeking individuals to join the Central RSA Academies School Improvement Team. As RSA Academies, we aim to develop exceptional learners by developing outstanding professionals. Our vision is to ensure social justice through exceptional schools.

We believe in potential as much as experience. You will be a great teacher; you don't have to have done it for many years to be a strong fit for this role!

You will use your passion, expertise and subject knowledge in Modern Foreign Languages to drive forward the quality of teaching and learning across a home school and working with all our Academies, working in secondary ages 11-19. You will take a lead role in our Modern Foreign Languages Co-Design Subject Team. Regular travel between our schools and our base and training facility in The Assay Studios, in the Jewellery Quarter, is essential as you may be required to work with our leaders and teachers across other schools other than your base school- modelling best practice through teaching, as well as coaching and leading others to ensure we all achieve the same successes. You will have a base school where you be expected to teach. You will have the opportunity to become a Specialist Leader of Education if you not already and opportunities to work with staff across schools.

Our investment in you:

Our staff work together to ensure the best possible learning for our young people, by supporting each other through expertise and sharing so that our staff can be the best they can be. We will invest heavily in you, through our innovative talent management people strategy, including a detailed year-long induction programme and our innovative 'Let's Talk People' strategy, so that you can invest in our young people most effectively.

Our Trust:

Social Justice through Exceptional Schools. Do you want to be part of an organisation with a powerful vision and strong values? The Central RSA Academies Trust is a group of primary and secondary RSA Academies with a strong link with the Royal Society for the Encouragement of Arts, Manufactures and Commerce (known as the Royal Society of Arts, The RSA). This is an incredibly exciting opportunity to join a forward-thinking, Midlands-based, Multi Academy Trust with a moral drive to ensure the best educational outcomes for our students and striving to make a difference to the lives of our young people. We currently have eight schools within our Trust, with children from the age of three up to sixth form aged young adults. Our schools are in two hubs: in Tipton, in the Black Country, and in Worcestershire.

For an informal conversation about this role, please contact Sam McMonagle, School Improvement Leader or Guy Shears, Executive Principal (CEO) on telephone number: 0121 270 3117.
